

catholicguysshow.com

Where Lino Rulli is No. 1

"The Catholic Guy" is live from 4-7 p.m. Eastern, Monday through Friday on The Catholic Channel, Sirius 159 and XM 117

It is with a heavy heart that I relay the sad news to you. Father Paul Keenan collapsed last night, and has passed away. (Editors note: they just announced it on the air a few minutes ago) He would have been 62 this Friday, according to Bob Dunning on Across the Nation.

Anybody who has ever listened to The Catholic Channel knows Father Paul's voice. Just hearing him speak always put my heart at ease...Father Paul was like a family member to many listeners.

Please take a few minutes today to remember Father Paul and his family in your prayers.

Our world just lost a man with great integrity. You will always be loved and remembered.

Posted by dustin (The 16-bit Catholic) at 15:14 , 11 comments

Labels: Father Paul Keenan, Seriousness

11 comments:

oskiwow, June 10, 2008 4:16 PM

Are there any recordings of past shows by Father Paul?

-mike in burbank

dustin \(The Boston Celtics fan\), June 10, 2008 4:21 PM

I'm not sure yet....I will find out if they will rerun any of the shows and keep you updated. I do know that if you go to the catholic channel homepage, there is a show clip from Fr. Pauls show up.

Fr. Jim Chern, June 10, 2008 5:24 PM

I'm really sad to read this today. For years before Sirius started "The Catholic Channel" I would listen to Fr Paul on WABC 770AM every Sunday on a show called "Religion on the Line"

He would be speaking with a Rabbi for a couple of hours and took phone calls from people. It was a terrific conversation every week and was a prelude to this great channel.

Fr. Paul was definitely a pioneer in helping the Church to dialogue more through the media.

Eternal rest grant unto Him O Lord, and may the perpetual light shine upone Him. May He rest in peace...

Doug INK, June 10, 2008 10:24 PM

He was a great man. I thought he was the perfect mellow voice for his original late night time slot. Always gave me lots to ponder. When making my "Devil Don't Like Sirius 159" video, (honestly not meant as a plug), I wanted to mention him somehow but didn't feel right taking a sarcastic jab at him like I did the other personalities. I do consider him a great and holy man.

Raymond, June 11, 2008 12:20 AM

I just heard on the replay of Lino's show. I am sure that God has welcomed him with open arms.

Dan Sealana, June 11, 2008 12:46 AM

As usual, when someone dies, I feel like I should have appreciated them more.

To be honest, I only listened to Father Paul's show a few times, and only called in once or twice. Now I wish I had listened more.

Whenever I listened to Father Paul, I was always reminded that it's important to be kind to others and that it's OK to disagree with someone without them being your enemy.

Father Paul was a genuinely kind and caring priest, and he will be missed.

Dan Sealana, June 11, 2008 12:48 AM

oskiwow,

If you mean are there recordings of Father Paul on YouTube or something, I'm not sure.

Hopefully they'll play some sort of tribute with past Father Paul shows in the coming days on TCC.

Melissa, June 11, 2008 9:19 AM

In Santa Fe, NM Father Paul has two fans. We've been scouring the Internet trying to find out the details of his death. Thanks to this blog we now know. We haven't found a word in the papers, etc. What a loss of heart for this world. Alexander Shaia was a regular guest on Father Paul's show. If anyone wants to listen, the interviews about the Gospels can be heard at www.quadratos.com.

Thanks again for letting us know.
melissa

dustin \(The Boston Celtics fan\), June 11, 2008 11:31 AM

Thank you for the link, Melissa. I know that people will enjoy hearing that.

Dymphna \(4HisChurch\), June 11, 2008 10:11 PM

What a shock this is. May he rest in peace.

peter, June 15, 2008 7:37 PM

Dear Father Paul,
you have gone on so quickly to the great abundance.
I shall miss you. Thank you for the books.

Peter in Halifax

Replays of Father Paul

>> 10.6.08

I thought the opening of today's show, in which Lino addressed the death of Father Paul Keenan, was spot on. Very well done.

Man, I can't believe we're talking about the death of Fr. Paul Keenan. Lino's right: I don't think the news has sunk in yet.

Posted by dustin (The 16-bit Catholic) at 17:27 , 0 comments

Labels: Father Paul Keenan

God bless you Father Paul Keenan. Rest in peace.

>> 11.6.08

We've got word that the Father Paul's As You Think shows will be reruns this weekend, so you should be able to tune in on Saturday and Sunday to hear them.

Also, The Catholic Channel will be putting together a montage of different moments of Father Paul's time on the radio for broadcast soon. More on the airtimes soon.

Posted by dustin (The 16-bit Catholic) at 02:24 , 0 comments

Labels: Father Paul Keenan

This article was obtained from The Catholic Guy Show:
<http://catholicguyshow.blogspot.com>